

WALL STREET JOURNAL

DATE

4 May

PAGE

1

medlin
AC

FBI Director William Webster in an address to newspaper editors expressed concern about jeopardy to confidential informants posed by the Freedom of Information Act.

* * *
In Tuesday primaries a field of eight North Carolina Democrats seeking to oppose incumbent Republican Sen. Jesse Helms in November was narrowed to State Insurance Commissioner John Ingram and Luther Hodges Jr., son of a former governor, who will face each other in a runoff. Indiana voters supported their incumbent Congressmen but with a record low turnout.